

Classic Craft Cabinetry

Commodore Homes of Pennsylvania's
Classic Craft Cabinetry is
KCMA Approved

What does that mean?

This means that Classic Craft Cabinetry built at Commodore Homes of Pennsylvania meet the same rigorous KCMA standards as all other leading cabinet manufacturers. These cabinets go through a series of tests to measure structural integrity of the cabinets. Cabinet doors and drawers are tested, and even the finish is tested before the KCMA will certify our cabinets.

Our highly skilled craftsmen create premium cabinets sure to enhance the beauty, value and quality of your home. Classic Craft Cabinetry are constructed in conformance with the rigid certification requirements of the Kitchen Cabinet Manufacturer's Association (KCMA). Through on-going tests performed by an experienced, independent laboratory, the KCMA certification program assures you that any cabinet bearing the KCMA seal complies with the rigorous standards set by the American National Standards Institute (ANSI) and KCMA.

Due to the natural materials used in the cabinetry, colors and grain patterns may vary slightly in actual cabinets. Printing processes in the brochure cannot guarantee exact color reproduction. Please see actual door samples.
